

RELEASE OF LIABILITY FOR PERSONAL INJURY

Blackstone Wrestling Club, its owners, operators, instructors, employees, agents and servants (BWC), are hereby jointly and severally released, forever remised, quitclaimed and discharged from any and all manner of action, causes of action, claims, demands, debts, reimbursements, liabilities, accounts, obligations, costs, and expenses of every kind and nature whatever, at law or in equity (collectively "Claims") for personal injury or otherwise related to _____ or his or her parents', caretakers', wardens' and/or beneficiaries' ("Wrestler's") use of the facilities, equipment, apparatus or premises of BWC at 2600 Mendon Road ("Wrestling Club") and/or Wrestler's participation in other events organized, run and/or sponsored by BWC, whether at Wrestling Club or elsewhere.

Wrestler hereby covenants that he or she will not assert, institute, or maintain any suit, claim, action or proceeding, either at law or in equity, against BWC for any of the released Claims. Wrestler and his parents and/or caretakers agree to indemnify and hold BWC harmless from any Claims...

By signing this release, I certify that I understand and accept the following:

1. Any sport requires strength, agility and concentration and that it is solely my responsibility to determine that my child is in good health and good physical and mental condition before permitting my child to exercise, work out, receive instruction or perform.
2. That any sport that requires twisting, turning, tumbling, jumping, flexion, extension and rotation, which movements are often performed with considerable force and/or at considerable height and which can result in severe, permanent personal injuries, including, but not limited to, bruised, strained, sprained or torn muscles, tendons and ligaments, broken bones, derangements or dislocations of joints, concussion, brain damage, nerve and spinal cord injury, paralysis and death.
3. That all sports require the use of apparatus and/or equipment, which may cause or contribute to severe, permanent personal injuries, such as those described above.

I have read and understand the Release of Liability for Personal Injury and I acknowledge that I am authorized to bind Wrestler.
